

Heramba Chandra College celebrated World Book & Copyright Day on 3rd May 2023. A day-long programme to mark the occasion was organised by the Publication & Magazine Committee of the College. Dr. Runa Biswas, Principal, Sivanath Sastri College and Dr. Nabanita Chakrabarti, Principal, Heramba Chandra College inaugurated a small book fair. In their speeches, they encouraged the students to develop a habit of reading books. The Committee organised a book-review competition on selected Bengali and English books. The participants expressed their thoughts while presenting a critique of the selected books. This was followed by a Quiz Competition on International Book Day. The response of the audience was overwhelming. There were 105 students in the audience.

Mr. Caesar Bagchi, an eminent writer, graced the afternoon session of the programme. He narrated his journey in the field of literature. The students enthusiastically interacted with him in the open session after his speech. The students were eager to know about various career options that the study of journalism and literature would provide for them. In the prize distribution ceremony Dr. Ratnakar Pani, Principal, Prafulla Chandra College was the Guest of Honour.

Winners:

1 st Prize	Avirup Saha	Dept. of Pol. So.
2 nd Prize	Mounim Raj	Dept. of Commerce
3 rd Prize	Somnath Halder	Dept. of Bengali

Book Fair

Mr. Caesar Bagchi on the podium

Book Review Competition

Prize Distribution Ceremony