

Heramba Chandra College

POCO

Department of Political Science (Under CCF, 2022)

Programme Outcome:

PO1: Critical Thinking & Problem-solving: This outcome involves training students to think critically and independently. Critical thinking skills help graduates make informed decisions effectively. It equips students with problem-solving skills. Graduates should be capable of identifying complex issues, analysing root causes, and proposing effective solutions. This skill is valuable in both personal life and professional careers.

PO2: Research Skills: This BA programme requires students to engage in research activities. They should learn to use proper research methodologies and tools to investigate and present their findings.

PO3: Interdisciplinary Knowledge: Depending on their chosen major, minor and interdisciplinary subjects within the BA programme, students should develop expertise in their specific area of study, whether it's literature, history, education, economics, geography, political science, or another field. This specialized knowledge provides depth in their chosen discipline.

PO4: Employability: On graduating, the students will be eligible for employment in education and other industries like tourism, media, etc. Their skills in comprehension of general social phenomena around them place them in an ideal situation for such jobs. They can also appear for competitive examinations conducted for public sector jobs. They can pursue higher studies to be engaged in academics.

Program Specific Outcomes:

PSO1: Students will acquire foundational knowledge of political theories, concepts, and ideologies and will be able to critically assess different political thoughts, both classical and contemporary.

PSO2: Students will gain a comprehensive understanding of constitutional design of government and political institutions in India.

PSO3: Students will be able to critically assess and contribute to policy-making processes, including evaluation of public administration, governance strategies, and institutional frameworks.

PSO4: Students will develop a sense of civic responsibility and understand ethical considerations in political practice, enabling them to contribute meaningfully to society and public discourse.

PSO5: Students will cultivate skills in problem-solving, negotiation, and decision-making, preparing them for roles in policy analysis, political consultancy, and public service.

PSO6: Students will be equipped for further studies in political science, law, public policy, or related fields and be prepared for career paths in government, non-governmental organizations, media, and academia.
