

ACTIVITY REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR TITLED JANMADWISHATABARSHE MADHUSUDAN: MADHUSUDAN IN HIS BIRTH BICENTENARY

The department of English and Bengali wished to celebrate the bicentenary of the birth of Michael Madhusudan Dutt, one of the key figures of Bengali renaissance and a major poet in the history of Bengali literature. In association with IQAC the two departments organised an international seminar on 17 January 2024. The students of the college, research scholars and teachers of the college wholeheartedly participated to make the seminar a resounding success.

The resource persons were as follows:

1. Dr. Md. Arif Haider, Professor, Dept. of Theatre, University of Rajshahi, Bangladesh.
2. Dr. Anasuya Bhar, Associate Professor, Dept. of English & Dean of Post Graduate Studies, St. Paul's Cathedral Mission College
3. Dr. Md. Arif Haider, Professor, Dept. of Theatre, University of Rajshahi, Bangladesh.

Number of participants including research scholars: 120.

The seminar committee, in association with IQAC and the Publication Committee, intends to publish a book on the proceedings of the said international seminar.

Speech of the Resource Person

Plenary session