The relief effort, which saw the participation of four dedicated members, was significantly supported by Mr. Baibhab Tiwary, IPS, who provided crucial assistance in coordinating the activities. The team distributed essential relief packets to the affected residents, which included soap, masks, sanitary napkins, bleaching powder, and other day-to-day necessities. The primary objective was to address immediate health and hygiene needs and prevent the spread of disease in the aftermath of the flood. The relief camp was strategically set up to reach the maximum number of affected individuals, ensuring that the aid was both comprehensive and accessible. The St. John Ambulance members worked tirelessly to distribute the supplies efficiently, providing not only material aid but also emotional support to
